

United Against Human Trafficking (UAHT), is an organization whose mission is to end human trafficking through awareness, education, and outreach. We aspire for all people to experience freedom and to live beyond bondage to others. We envision a world made up of communities, businesses, faith-based organizations, and governments who are intolerant of consumers and purveyors of human trafficking.

UAHT is a dynamic organization that is growing and expanding its services. UAHT's board members are an integral part of this growth and expansion. This is an extraordinary opportunity for an individual who is passionate about UAHT's mission to serve on the Board of Directors.
