

Business Activation Team

United Against Human Trafficking (UAHT), is an organization whose mission is to end human trafficking through awareness, education, and outreach. We aspire for all people to experience freedom and to live beyond bondage to others. We envision a world made up of communities, businesses, faith-based organizations, and governments who are intolerant of consumers and purveyors of human trafficking.

UAHT is constantly seeking to raise awareness and find creative ways to get information in the hands of potential victims. Our Business Activation Team has an integral part of organizing, campaigning, and engaging local business' in our community. This team is made up of dedicated volunteers who wish to be a voice for the vulnerable in our city and connect with businesses who are willing to make a difference.
